MIKE BROWNFIELD

Update on recycle pick up: We are working on a new program for recycling. More info to follow next month.

The new P/M program continues. We continue to identify items to add to our list of items we are looking at during our visit. We have four streets to complete on the “summer” program. In October, we will begin the “winter” program, checking and cleaning furnaces and other winter cottage checks. Staff will contact you to schedule an appointment.

The next round of road maintenance will start later this month. There will be some crack filling and seal coating happening on campus. There will be a day or so that the employee parking lot will be seal coated and staff will need to park in the SV parking lot. We will do our best to make sure it is when no events are scheduled. Maintenance will let you know when this work will begin.

I would like to recommend that residents do not cut through the employee lot to get to or to leave Canary Lane. We have had several near misses and had a resident and staff member involved in a collision with no injuries. There are many blind spots and creates a dangerous pathway for all.

NEW BUSINESS

Elections of new officers were presented by Jerry Key: Jim Richardson, President; Joan Gerjets, Vice-President; and Rosie Alig, Secretary. Outgoing President, Judy Brandow, took a show of hands for each office. They were passed unanimously.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

No unfinished business

HOSPITALITY COMMITTEE: NEW BUSINESS

Chairman Ed Kouri stated that all new residents have received welcome baskets and tours.

VISITORS' COMMENTS

Gordie Guenther had a comment about a new cook last Sunday.

Carol Ellegood asked Mike Brownfield about the PBS channel disappearing. Mike stated it is weak air waves that is causing the problem.

Ken Lewis would like Mike Brownfield to thank his staff for picking the corn. It is much appreciated. He also asks about trees being planted on Clark St.

FINANCIAL REPORT

The Financial Report shows a balance of $3,996.97. If you have any questions, please contact Judy Brandow at 309-645-1151.

With no further business to discuss, Jim Richardson adjourned the Resident Council meeting.

Respectfully submitted:

Rosie Alig, Recording Secretary
